MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

James Myers and Miss Annie Melton, of Jellico, were married at John Z. Spoonamore's by Rev. W. M. Britt yesterday.

T. L. Hiatt, a widower of 32, and Miss Loretta Smiley, just 15, were married at the courthouse yesterday by Judge J. P. Bailey. Both live in the West End.

Miss Sallie Baker, daughter of Rev. J. F. Baker, of Lexington, eloped with Frank Beauchamp, a painter. Miss Baker was a student at Hamilton Female College, and left home with her books for school. At the entrance her lover was in waiting with a carriage. They were married at Georgetown.

We are authorized to announce the marriage of Prof. E. L. Grubbs, of Shelby City, to Miss Jennie Caroline Fox, daughter of Mr. D. B. Fox, of the same section, which will occur at the Christian church in Junction City on June 27. Rev. G. W. Mills will perform the ceremony and a reception at Capt. W. E. Grubbs', father of the groom, will follow.

Mr. Lewis L. Doty, of this place, and Miss Annie Thorn, of Bourbon, were married at her home near Millersburg, last night, Rev. Echols, of that place, performing the ceremony. The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of J. H. Thorn, an extensive farmer and horse raiser, while the groom is too well known here to comment on. Suffice it is to say, however, he is one of the best catches in this section and the woman who caught him is to be congratulated. He is a son of Capt. J. A. Doty, of Garrard, and is a chip off the old block. Miss Hallie Doty, a sister, and Messrs. John and Will Doty, brothers of the groom, accompanied him and the whole party returned this a. m. Tonight the groom's parents will give a reception. Mr. and Mrs. Doty will go at once to housekeeping at his home on the Danville pike, where he has put everything in readiness to receive his bonnie bride.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Gen. D. R. Collier is having a boom for the continuation for governor.

The House adopted without division the resolution providing for adjournment June 6.

Wm. R. Hearst, editor of the N. Y. Journal, was elected president of the National Association of Democratic Clubs.

Judge J. H. Lewis denies that he is out of the race for the nomination for governor, and says he would be proud to receive the honor.

The House passed the bill to extend the eight-hour law to all laborers employed under contract on government work and also the measure to prohibit interstate traffic in prison-made goods.

Charles F. W. Neeley, financial agent of postal Cuba, is in jail in New York in default of $50,000 bond to answer a civil suit for $45,375.25 he is charged with wrongfully converting to his own use.

The Louisiana Legislature elected Gov. Murphy J. Foster to the United States Senate in place of Caffery, and re-elected Hon. Samuel Douglas McEnery, who is at the present time junior senator from that State.

The blind chaplain of the House startled the members by referring to the Cuban frauds, which he said had brought the blush of shame to the cheek of every true American. "We pray that the culprit will be brought to speedy justice, that we may give an object lesson to the world in dealing with perfidy and fraud."

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

The Boyle jail is minus a single prisoner.

The Hume distillery made 6,900 barrels of whisky in three months.

Boyle had only five teachers to enter for examination. Laurel had 77.

Bell has a new postoffice, Excelsior, and Wm. Pritchard is postmaster.

Gen. J. M. Poyntz, of Richmond, has been designated by Gen. Gordon as chief marshal at the Big Reunion Parade.

Dr. J. B. Eades, of Wayne, tells the Record that he has treated over 200 cases of typhoid fever in the past three years and hasn't lost a patient.

The students of Central University, Gov. Beckham's alma mater, celebrated his supreme court victory in enthusiastic fashion.

The grand jury at Pineville returned indictments against Chief of Police R. N. King, of Middlesboro, and John Mosley at Will Sullivan, special police, of Middlesboro, for confederating to kill. The indictments grew out of the recent trouble when Will Mosley was killed and Charles Cecil had his foot shot off in a clash between the political factions.

POISONS AND DIAMONDS.

Both are put up in small packages, but you don't want to swallow either of them. This is just to remind you that medicines made up in pills the size of a mustard seed are fixed that way either because they are dangerous or because they are too valuable to permit of being sold for the money. The Red Circle Pills don't contain poison and they are big enough to hold a good dose of medicine. The way they arouse the liver is proof of this. Nature will do the rest.

WHAT A FOUL BREATH YOU HAVE. It's on your tongue. You can't scrape it off with a knife either. It's the escape from your liver. Takes Red Circle Pills every night and breathes sweet scented breath with mirth and roses. This is more truth than poetry.

Jack Sheppard, a miser, was bound and gagged near Wilsonville, Tenn., and robbed of $1,200.

JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE.

REV. GEO. O. BARNES THINKS HIM THE 2D JOHN THE BAPTIST.

SANIBEL, May 16, 1900.

"THERE WAS A MAN SENT FROM GOD WHOSE NAME WAS JOHN."

That was true 1,900 years ago. That is true today, I believe. John the Baptist was the 1st John; John Alex. Dowie is the 2d John. The first came in "the spirit and power of Elijah."

The second comes in like manner. Our Lord Jesus declared that John the Baptist was the Elijah of prophecy "if they would receive him." But they "rejected the counsel of God against themselves," and the promise of the TRUMPET KING OF ISRAEL, to succeed the coming of His forerunner and witness, is IN ABEYANCE to this day.

But it is not to be PERMANENTLY of non-effect. "He is FAITHFUL who has promised;" though in this, as in all else, the craft of the Devil and the unbelief of man can HAMPER and DELAY the fulfillment, which yet is sure.

So the matter stands today.

A second "messenger of the covenant" must come this time to introduce "that great and dreadful day of the Lord" with which so many pages of Scripture thrill and tremble. SOME ONE MAN must fulfill the "Scripture," that "can not be broken."

SOME ONE MAN, "sent of God" must be raised up to "prepare the way of the Lord" and "make His paths straight." This is to be in opposition and contradiction to the crooked ways of the Devil and men, down which flocks of staggering humanity have been crowding like silly sheep, "without a shepherd" to guide.

The work to be done is simply prodigious. It is "Athanasius against the world"—again. Nay, more, it is one man "against the world"—flanked by "the flesh" and "the Devil."

"Who is sufficient for these things," unless the "chosen vessel" is selected, commissioned and equipped by God, who sends him forth in power, though in himself only "a voice," (not even an entire personality) crying in the wilderness. There is something almost "uncanny" about this "voice" proceeding from a "worm, and no man,"—as others esteem the instrument,—and yet "a man every inch of him," the like of which had never been seen since creation's dawn, until 1,900 years ago; and, by analogy, now, in the same remarkable degree.

The Master said "of man born of women, there has not arisen a greater than John the Baptist." Where were Moses, Isaiah, Ezekiel and the rest of the mighty men of old? Dwarfed and stunted beside this "voice crying in the wilderness," whose mission was to "prepare the way of the LORD," and 2d, to "make His paths straight."

Does our LORD exaggerate? Or does His divine estimate of his chosen "messenger" stand? Who may gainsay it. And because of his mission; in no wise his personality, this must be said of another human instrument, who shall be sent to announce that "great and dreadful day of the LORD." The first "John," "did what he could," but the unbelief of men made him, but the forerunner of a suffering, not a triumphant Savior.

The second John (if he be, indeed, a "John") must needs introduce the kingly "King of Glory." Not in weakness, now, but in power, great enough to "put all enemies under his feet."

O what a great and dreadful day of the LORD will that be when the "To triumph" of the conqueror will be mingled with the "Voe Victis" of defeat!

"Who is this with dyed garments from Bozrah?" "It is the LORD—mighty in battle." People will not believe that the battle of Armageddon is now almost a thing of days, ahead. The night precedes the day. Evening and morning is the order, until the day dawns that never knows a night; for the Prince of Darkness is no more, and God is "all and in all," and "in Him is no darkness at all." But do not forget that for as the shadows of eventide lengthen, and "the night cometh, when no man can work."

The "messenger of the covenant," then and now, has one mission—to strike rampant evil and strike it hard. Therefore he is to "know no man, according to the flesh." "Pharisees and Scribes" if in the wrong, receive no recognition except as a "generation of vipers," though they represent all that is accounted religiously respectable in Judea—or, now, elsewhere, John's preaching was denunciatory from "start to finish" of his rugged ministry.

Our Jesus, kind and tender to publican and harlot, was unsparingly severe to "Chief Priests and elders;" "Scribes and Pharisees;" "rulers of the people."

"Repent for the Kingdom of the heavens is among you," did not allow of any tampering with sin, because found in holy places.

It is a thankless task—this grappling with sin entrenched in respectability and custom.

It needed one "clothed in camel's hair"—rugged as his work and "eating locusts and wild honey" to show his contempt of the dainty life in vogue among his people.

The face must be "set as a flint" against everything "highly esteemed among men, but abominable in the sight of God."

If John Alexander Dowie does not fit this John the Baptist Mission—this "Elijah" twice preceding the coming of the LORD, I fail to read Scripture aright and fail even to see correctly the "signs of the times."

He comes nearer the "Messenger of the Covenant" than any one who has risen above the horizon since Malachi spoke the words by direction of the spirit of God, that foretold his coming, to "prepare the way" for the coming of the King.

I believe him to be a genuine character, and with not a shadow of "fakery" to obscure his mission. He preaches a pure gospel of Salvation for "Spirit, Soul, and Body." His true immersion is the Baptism of the Holy Catholic church from Apostolic times. His life is "unsullied from the world;" his simple aim to "prepare the way of the LORD and MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT."

Enmity gathers its force against him in vain. No "weapon," though forged by hate and wielded with power, can "prosper" against him till his work is done.

The end of that may be martyrdom, and he be one of the two witnesses" spoken of in Scripture, whose history is so thrillingly wonderful in the end. I don't know about that, but I do know that no such figure has loomed before us in these "last days;" and he bears the Bible "ear marks" of the "servant of the LORD," who is to make true to even scepticism, the saying of the LORD emphasized afresh, after 1900 years. "If ye will receive it, this is that Elijah that was to come."

Of course Scribe and Pharisee, Chief Priest and Ruler scorn his mission and call him vile names. That is one sure sign of a genuine mission. "Blessed are ye when men revile you and persecute you and say all manner of evil things of you, FALSELY, for my sake and the gospel's." I know that no one in these last days who has verified "a call of God" on this line, like this much vilified servant of God.

But they can't down him. "It the LORD had not been on his side," surely long ago, he would have been "swallowed up," as scripture puts it.

This phenomenon has attracted wide notice, even among non-sympathizers with "Zion."

Said one prominent citizen to another in the city of Chicago not very long ago: "Do you know the biggest thing in Chicago today?" "What is it," asked the other. "It is this little man Dowie, on Michigan Avenue," responded his friend. "This witness is true."

All who love the LORD and look for his coming should "pray without ceasing" that he may "fulfill his course with joy and the ministry committed to him." He is the centre of more believing prayer today than any living man.

"There was a man sent from GOD whose name was JOHN?"

Why not this JOHN? God chooses whom He will. He chose the son of Zacharias and Elizabeth—good people, but from among the great "middle class," to do his work 1900 years ago.

He did it well, tho' far from faultless in personality. He delighted to do God's will as His Master, preeminently did.

Who, of all you know, can approach in holy zeal this OTHER JOHN THE BAPTIST? Who among men has God so honored in working through them to heal those who are possessed of the Devil?"

Judged by every criterion, HE IS THE MESSENGER OF THE COVENANT THE LORD DELIGHTS IN. So I fervently believe. —BRO. BARNES.

ALIVE AND DEAD FIGHT.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: Exposure after exposure induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages; coughed night and day. All my doctors said I would soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Penny's Drug Store.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is demonic enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of his statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Craig & Hoeker Druggets.

Because she was not shown much attention at a hop, Miss Sue Raymond, of Illinois, Ill., went home and took an overdose of morphine.

W. F. MARTIN.

A CASEY COUNTY SOLDIER IN THE PHILIPPINES.

W. F. Martin was born in Casey county, where he taught school after taking a normal course at Lebanon, O. He also took up photography and was running one of the leading galleries at Lexington, when the war was declared with Spain. He immediately offered his services to the first Kentucky regiment but was rejected for a physical ailment. He made another effort to join the army and on Aug. 21, 1899, enlisted at Hustonville, in the 29th U. S. V. Finding the regiment full he was assigned to a detachment of recruits for the 37th, which was mobilized in Manila, and Oct. 5, sailed for that port. He is now with his regiment operating in the hot bed of insurrection on the south line of Luzon, and doing honor to his native county.

GLORIOUS NEWS.

Cures from Dr. D. R. Cargile, of Washington, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, scrofula, skin eruptions, itching and burning sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Penny's Drugstore.

APPENDICITIS, A KNIFE AND A GRAVE.

A pitiful tale indeed. It is copied and reprinted in the daily papers every day in the year. Our friends and kinsmen are the victims. Do you want to become the hero in a like plot? No. Then when you feel that well known pain in the right groin take a Red Circle Pill every night until the pain subsides. Nature will do the rest.

THE RED CIRCLE PILL.

If you are suffering from Bright's Disease, functional derangement of the heart, of which palpitation is the chief symptom, dyspepsia, indigestion, Chronic Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Vertigo, Diabetic Pelvic Catarrh, or from painful, excessive or insufficient Menstruation, or other ailments caused by a deranged and torpid liver, go to your drugstore, buy a box of Red Circle Pills and try them. You will be surprised how simple a thing it is to be relieved.

AN ENDURING MONUMENT should be reared to the man who can cure dyspepsia. We want the monument and have made our claim on the merits of the Red Circle Pill. It will cure any curable case of dyspepsia.

LANCASTER.

It will be impossible to make personal mention of our visitors during the G. A. R. encampment, which began this, Thursday morning.

The graduates of the graded school were Misses Mary Thompson, Lee O. Stone and Annie Yantis. Diplomats were presented by Rev. J. C. Massee, who delivered an appropriate lecture. The exercises showed that the students had been thoroughly taught and disciplined.

The announcement of the supreme court decision had a happy effect on the democrats here. They wore a happy smile, their eyes sparkled and they shook hands more cordially. In 1876, 8 beat 7, but in 1900 8 beat 1. The decision will have a good effect on business and the people will return to their work.

The failure of the Louisville Commercial Club to visit us this week after extensive preparations had been made, was due to the fact that they could not make satisfactory rates with the L. & N., because Lancaster is not a competitive point. The people see more clearly than ever the necessity for another road. When there are two roads transportation is not worth so much.

On Monday afternoon "Uncle" Claborn Lear, the oldest and one of the best men in this county, died in the 93d year of his age. Funeral services were conducted at the cemetery Tuesday by Rev. J. C. Massee, whose remarks were highly appropriate in mentioning the pure character, the christian spirit and the noble life of the deceased. He was a member of the Baptist church and lived a life of honor and moral rectitude. Many friends witnessed the burial. He leaves one son, John F., who is also very popular.

The gates of our city are wide open, the "welcome" is suspended at each entrance to the public square. The court house, the Record office, the store houses, the hotels and residences are beautifully decorated and hundreds are pouring in to portake of the hospitalities of our people, which has never been found wanting. It will be the greatest event in the history of Lancaster, and the credit is due Capt. William Herndon for bringing the G. A. R. encampment here. The official train arrived from Louisville Wednesday afternoon with State officials, representatives from different posts and many citizens. The emblem of light and liberty floats on every breeze, streamers with the National colors, adorn the buildings, the air is freighted with martial music from several bands, including a drum corps from Louisville. In fact, the city has done a patriotic attire and hundreds of patriotic souls are beating in unison with the sentiments expressed in the speeches and music. Miss Christine Bradley went in her carriage, bearing the National flag, accompanied by Miss Eugenia Bush, bearing the Confederate flag, and Mr. J. M. Higginbotham and met Gen. Gordon, taking him through town, being followed by several bands of music and a long column of the blue and the gray. Misses May Hughes and Dove Harris prepared of beautiful green the inscription "No North, No South," and suspended it in the court room, where Gen. Gordon delivered his lecture. The ladies of the G. A. R. are well represented. Department officers will be elected today, and it is conceded that Maj. L. M. Drye will be chosen commander and Capt. Wm. Hervaon Sr., vice commander. The grand parade will take place Friday. Addressees of welcome were delivered this morning by Messrs. L. L. Walker and W. L. Williams, response by Gen. E. H. Hobson. After the Gordon lecture tonight, the Confederate veterans will be received in a body by Capt. Herndon, response by Gen. R. J. Breckinridge. The meeting promises to be one of good feeling and general satisfaction. The informal meeting at the court house Wednesday night was well attended and the telling of adventures during the service was entertaining.

Gov. John C. Underwood, whom a committee of the U. C. V. placed in charge of raising a fund for the erection of the Confederate memorial at Richmond, Va., has more than raised the $100,000 required to secure the conditional donation of $100,000 from Chas. Broadway Rouse, of New York. The fund, with the donation of Mr. Rouse, now amounts to $223,000.

At St. Louis, Special Policeman McKee was killed by a shot from a mob of strike sympathizers who had attacked a car. A three-year-old child was wounded by a bullet from a policeman's pistol, and a conductor is lying at a hospital suffering from probably a fatal wound inflicted by a mob.

HE FOULED THE SURGEONS. All doctors told Benick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Prolapse, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arctic Salve, the surest cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by Penny's Drugstore.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - MAY 25, 1900

W. P. WALTON.

The damnable plot of assassination, laid with devilish ingenuity by the political conspirators at Frankfort, is further unfolded by the action of Gov. Mount, of Indiana, in refusing to recognize a requisition for Charles Finley, arrested by detectives at Indianapolis on the warrant based on an indictment for complicity in the assassination of Gov. Goebel. It shows that it was a part of the plan, arranged in advance, for the assassin sympathizer of Indiana to afford a safe haven for the assassins, if Taylor's pardons, issued before the men had been charged with the crime, were held to be of no avail. The flight of Taylor to Indiana immediately on hearing the decision of the supreme court, further proves the promised immunity, as well as further fastens the participation in the crime on the man who seems to have deliberately plotted to have his political opponent murdered in cold blood. Flight is almost a sure indication of guilt, the more especially when no man seemed to pursue. A few weeks ago he asserted that he would never be a fugitive from justice, but his acts belie his assertions for he fled with precipitancy and with the look of a man who fears to face the consequences of his deeds. Thus does the apparent head of the conspirators forge another link in the chain of evidence against him and convinces even the unwilling mind that he must be guilty of the great crime.

THOUGH the Federal Constitution makes it mandatory for a governor to grant a requisition from another governor for a person charged with treason, felony or other crime, who shall flee from justice, Gov. Mount, of Indiana, refused to honor the request from Gov. Beckham for Finley, charged with being accessory to the assassination of Goebel, and constituting himself judge and jury said he should not be taken to Kentucky to be hanged. This outrageous and high-handed action is entirely approved by the leading republicans of Indiana, who rushed to Finley's aid and proposed to use every effort to prevent his extradition. Such shielding of alleged criminals should not be permitted and Taylor, Finley, et al, who have sought refuge in Indiana, should be brought back at any cost.

GOV. BECKHAM in an interview expressed satisfaction, but no surprise, over the decision of the supreme court that no Federal question was involved in the Kentucky cases and that it had no jurisdiction. He regards it as a triumph of law and order over lawlessness and desperation. He would give his best efforts to the State and hoped very soon to bring order out of chaos. The republican cry of "civil liberty" would be met by the cry of protection for human life, and as long as he is governor both shall be had. Gov. Beckham has great responsibilities to face, but he is a man of affairs, even if he is a young man, and that he will meet them courageously and properly those who know him best are the freest to assert.

THE roads are full of tricks as a heathen Chinese, and they are usually as vain and peculiar. The contestants for the minor State offices, through Gov. Bradley, moved the court of appeals Wednesday to dismiss their cases without prejudice, the intention being to make a strenuous effort to elect a republican successor to Judge Hazelrigg, who will do their bidding on a motion to reinstate. Such election would give them a majority of the court of appeals and then they would have things in a lull. The democratic lawyers do not propose to submit to such tricks, however, and will resist the motion and press a final disposition of the matter.

NEWS comes from the mountains that some of the republicans have it in for Judge John Henry Wilson for helping the democrats get evidence against the Goebel assassins, and claim that he forced Wharton Goulder to confess. For the terrible crime of trying to bring the guilty to justice, he is said to be marked for assassination himself, but such threats do not scare Judge Wilson. He knows the cowards who are making them and that they haven't even the nerve to kill a man unawares.

The nomination by the John A. Broadbent Camp of Mr. Biscoe Hindman, general agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., with headquarters at Louisville, to be commander of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, is a handsome compliment to a worthy son of a gallant general to the army of the lost cause. He is admirably fitted for the position, to which he will doubtless be elected without opposition.

TAYLOR's flight to Indiana, where he is a fugitive from justice, thereby acknowledging his guilt of the assassination charges, puts him out of the pale of decent consideration even by his party, many of whom sympathize with assassination, and he will doubtless be shelved for a better man in the race for governor. At any rate he could not run very well in Kentucky, while an exile in Indiana.

THE gold democrat, in convention at Indianapolis, say they can't support Bryan, unless concessions are made to them, and that they utterly abhor McKinley, whom they help put in office. Little orphans! But hold; Palmer McKee is still living, perhaps, in the city.

JOHN L. POWERS, one of the fugitives under indictment for complicity in the assassination of Gov. Goebel, was caught in Knox county and arrested at an early hour Tuesday morning while trying to escape from the State. He was taken to Barbourville, where he instituted habeas corpus proceedings. He was taken before County Judge Wyatt, when he presented an undated pardon from Taylor, which Wyatt held was good, and liberated the prisoner who rode off in triumph and is again a fugitive from justice. It is said that County Attorney Tuggle refused to appear for the Commonwealth in the case and lined up with the alleged assassin's friends. The outrageous action of these officers can not be too severely condemned and they should be compelled to suffer all the pains and penalties of the law, they have set at naught.

The action of the mock court will not be recognized and Gov. Beckham will offer such a reward for Powers as will bring him to the long delayed justice.

SENATOR BLACKBURN has issued an address to the democracy of Kentucky, in which he makes some admirable suggestions as to the platform soon to be adopted and suggests throwing the doors of the party wide open to all democrats and others who will support the nominees, in which we fully concur. He also says the Goebel Election law should be amended so as to give the two parties a majority and minority representation on the State and county boards and an equal division of the election officers. This may be all well enough, but a return to the viva voce system of voting, as he also suggests, will do away with the frauds that are possible under the ballot system and make Goebel or other election laws to prevent them unnecessary.

WRITING from Frankfort our telegraphic correspondent, Mr. Charles Dobbs, of the Louisville Times, suggests "Remember Goebel" as the war cry of democrats in the coming campaign and says it will be as forceful and as inspiring as was the cry of "Remember the Maine" in arousing our people to the importance of driving Spanish power from the Western Hemisphere. To remember the great leader is to make every man with a heart in him determine that the party which adopts assassination as its policy shall be scourged from power and out of the State.

IN correcting the report that he wrote the republican platform, Gen. Buckner adds: "I desire to say that I am entirely opposed to the spirit of Goebelism, and will support any organization that proposes to restore to the people the rights of which they have been deprived." As he does not seem to command more than one vote, this doughty man of surrender in war, seems to have entirely surrendered in peace to the enemy of the party that made him all he ever was. Some men live too long and old Simon Bolivar is one of them.

HON. HARVEY HELM formally announces his candidacy for delegate to the Kansas City convention in this issue. He is backed by the solid support of his county, which has always helped the other counties in their ambitions and his friends expect them to aid us now. There is not a better democrat in the district nor one who would wear the honor he craves more worthily than Mr. Helm.

INDIANAPOLIS is a beautiful city, but "an exile from home, splendor dazzles in vain," doubtless sing Taylor and Finley. They have the consolation, though, of knowing if they were not there they would be in jail with the other suspects, cogitating on the grave probability of furnishing necks for the hangman's halter.

IT is now stated that Neeley, the Cuban postoffice official, is $400,000 short. The poor Cubans seem to have jumped from the frying pan of Spain into the fire of the United States, with McKinley's horde of officeholders robbing them right and left.

JUSTUS GOEBEL and Attorney T. C. Campbell will go to Indiana to try to show the governor how unlawful he is acting in harboring criminals. We fear, however, it will be love's labor lost. It is useless to argue with such a fool as Mount seems to be.

IN turning over the adjutant general's office to Gen. John B. Castleman, Gen. D. R. Collier threw a huge bouquet at him, which Castleman returned with heavy interest. If these two warriors can fraternize there is hope for the old land yet.

Beckham's militia cost $11,500, Taylor's cost perhaps $100,000, but they will never get it.

The republican holders of the offices are giving them up to the democrats. Sweeney and Burke relinquished yesterday.

The supreme court decision opens the treasury doors and lets out much needed funds to the eleemosynary and other State institutions.

John W. Yerkes is being boomed for the republican nominee for governor this fall. Leaders of the party do not favor Taylor's re-nomination.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Dr. Louis H. Mulligan, eldest son of Judge James H. Mulligan, to be 1st assistant physician at the Lexington Asylum for the Insane.

Before departing the soldiers at the State house gave their undivided attention to several articles of value around the place, among them the Gatling gun and a cannon, both of which they did their utmost to ruin. The plunger of the Gatling gun was taken, leaving the gun perfectly useless, while the touch-hole of the cannon was splintered. —Courier Journal.

TWO CONVENTIONS.

FRANKFORT, May 25.—The democratic State executive committee decided on two conventions. The one to name delegates to Kansas City will be held June 14 at Louisville. County mass conventions will be held June 9. The convention to nominate a governor was set for July 19 at Lexington. Delegates will be selected by precinct and then by county conventions July 14th. The party gates were thrown wide open to all who will support the ticket, regardless of past affiliations. Everybody is asked to join in putting down the party of assassination.

BRO. LANDRAM, of the Lancaster Record, is kind enough to say: The Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL is out in new form, printed on a splinter new press. Mr. Walton is indeed a hustler and is determined to keep abreast of the times. He is an able editor and a trained newspaper man, which, together with being blessed with the best "outside man" we ever saw, enables him to keep the JOURNAL at the head of the procession of country newspapers. When he takes a notion to do anything, hard work, pains nor money stand in his way. He has been exceedingly kind to the editor of The Record, not only since our embarkation upon the sea of journalism, but for many years prior thereto, and we rejoice in the great success of the INTERIOR.

THE finest strawberries anybody ever saw were left at this office yesterday by Dr. E. M. Estes. They are of the Clyde variety and are as large as a good size apple. As he says he will bring us more, if anybody can beat them, we hope an effort will be made.

Lipps & Son, the Hustonsville millers, have contracted with a firm to double the capacity of their mill and they will shut down June 1st and work will begin on it. This will give the mill a capacity of 100 barrels per day. Mr. Williams made a little trip to Casey for the above firm and sold 146,500 pounds of flour. The mill has not been equal to the demand since Messrs. Lipps took charge.

AT the risk of being grieved by our brethren of the press, who know that millions of fac simile copies of the Ulster county, N. Y., Gazette, bearing the date of Jan. 4th, 1800, and in mourning for President George Washington, whose death on the 14th of December, 1799, with the ceremonies attending his burial, is told of, we state that we have before us what purports to be a genuine copy of the original edition. It belongs to Miss Bennie Nabers at the College, who says it has been handed down in her family from her great, great grandfather. It certainly looks that old and is a curiosity in newspaper making even if it was a fac simile.

AT London yesterday, the case against James Howard for killing Geo. Baker in Clay county, was virtually dismissed as a result of an agreement between the Baker and Howard factions. The case against Howard at Frankfort will not be so easily disposed of.

TO POLICY HOLDERS.—Anyone holding policies written by me will find me at the old stand with only the best of companies, and will look after them and renew same, as I have done for five years. Pay no attention to what any one may tell you. Thanking you for past favors. Respt., Jesse D. Wearen.*

THE old Dan Jones property, lately known as the Other place, was sold at auction to M. J. Farris for $8,000, says the Advocate. It contains 19 acres and has upon it a fine old mansion. Mr. Farris got it at a bargain, as it is one of the finest pieces of residence property in the Bluegrass, and, when improved as Mr. Farris is able to and will improve it, will be a veritable garden spot.

IX copying our reference to Thomas M. Owsley's determination to eschew an active participation in politics, the Bowling Green Times, edited by dear old Dr. John D. Woods, says: This is from the pen of Editor Walton, one of the cleverest men in the world and the democratic editor of the model rural newspaper of Kentucky, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, concerning our young townsman, Tom Owsley, himself as clever and clean as men get to be. Walton's lament over the defection of Tom and his departure from the democratic path trod by his long and splendid ancestry, is shared by every good democrat who knows the young gentleman. Tom evidently felt that there was room at the top in republican circles as well as in the professions, but he will find that the top in Kentucky republicanism is so little occupied that he will have a dreary, lonesome time and that he will have a continuous case of nostalgia. We join in with Tom's brother Walton in hoping soon to see him walking into the fatted calf with both hands, backed up by a good appetite, and a cordial welcome home.

THE Inch party given by the Grigsby Chapter, U. D. C., at the Veranda Hotel, Wednesday evening, proved a source of much pleasure to young and old. Confederate flags and other bunting were gracefully displayed, while pictures of President Davis, Gen. Lee, Jackson, Morgan, Gano and Coles, Grigsby, Napier and others were prominently placed and tastefully arranged. The attendance was good, but the admission in many cases was so small and the expenses so large that the net sum realized for the tablet for gallant Maj. Whaley's grave was not large. The charges were three cents a foot and two cents an inch over even feet, and quite a number being five feet and six feet exactly they got in for 15 and 18 cents respectively. Miss Ella May Saunders, George S. Carpenter, Rowan Sauley and others did the measuring, which occasioned much merriment. Miss Belle Denny collected the funds and nearly all of the "Daughters" assisted in one way and another, in making the guests have a good time. Frappe was served by Misses Sophie Alcorn and Nell Warren and the nice refreshments were served by pretty waiters. Miss Isabella Bailey gave some charming violin selections. Mrs. George L. Penny rendered some appropriate piano music very finely, while the Centre College Quartette, composed of Messrs. Ireland, Mustaine, Raines and Mills, sang a number of songs with highly appreciated effect. Some of the young people danced, little Berta Jean Penny amused with her nimble jigs and every one found some way of enjoying himself. Mrs. Alcorn, president, and the other members of the chapter were well pleased with the result of their first attempt to raise money for the laudable cause and will make another effort shortly.

ROYAL Baking Powder

The strongest, purest, most efficient and wholesome of leavening agents. Not lowest in price, yet the most economical; indispensable to all who appreciate the best and most healthful food.

Our country is enjoying prosperity almost unsurpassed in its history.

For every one there is money enough to buy that to eat which is pure, sound, good, wholesome.

Why should we use cheap, impure, unhealthful articles of food? There is no economy in them; they endanger the health, they may cost life. There are reported almost daily cases of sickness caused by eating cake, puddings or biscuit made with the cheap, alum baking powders.

In all articles for food buy and use only the best. The good health of the family is of first consideration.

Alum is used in many baking powders because it makes them cheap. It costs less than two cents a pound. Alum is a corrosive poison. Think of feeding it to children! Yet the manufacturers of well-known alum powders are actually denying that their goods contain it.
